Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The cited reference to Ohtsuji et al. teaches interactive voice response device which is the car terminal device (100) configured to allow a user to customize audio guidance (figure 8). The second reference to Morimoto et al. (US 6351706B1) has been found teaches the newly added limitation "interactive voice response device configured....to store the customized audio guidance in a user information storage device for use in all subsequent dialogue with the user" (column 4, lines 59-67). The application is set in a condition of final rejection. .
